

We named the seller of ATG's 70 theatres eighty-two days out.

On 21 May we recorded Providence Equity Partners preparing ATG Entertainment for a sale above £4bn. Right seller, right scale, right outcome. On 11 August Ariel Emanuel's MARI agreed to buy the business, an estate spanning the UK, US, Germany and Spain.

We found it

21 MAY • 82 DAYS OUT

Sale preparation reported in trade press and read by almost nobody outside it. On its own, an ordinary item about a theatre operator.

We sequenced it

HOLD PERIOD, ESTATE SCALE

Held against the sponsor's hold period and the size of the estate, so the item read as a dated process rather than a possibility.
