

WEEK 1 • THE TIMING EDGE

The mandate is won before it's announced.

Why the firms that win are not pitching harder. They are arriving earlier.

By the time a deal is public, you are one of five firms pitching for it.

The advantage was never the pitch. It was the timing.

Before any mandate becomes public, it leaves a trail.

THE SIGNALS A MANDATE LEAVES

Read on their own, noise. Read together, a mandate forming.

01 A leadership change

A new CFO or CEO arrives with a mandate to change things.

02 A hiring surge

Transformation, integration and corporate development roles open up.

03 Capital shifts

The structure moves. A review begins. Advisors start circling.

Most of that trail sits outside the databases everyone reads.

NOT JUST A SIGNAL

We hand you what to do about it.

01 The evidence

The proof behind the signal, so you act with conviction.

02 The warm introduction

A route into the room, to a named contact.

03 The next step

The specific BD angle to open the conversation.
